PER MONTH

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD

....83.50 Vol. 85. No. 12,097 Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second-

BRANCH OFFICES: WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE-Junction of Broadway and Sixth ave. at 32d st. WORLD HARLEM OFFICE-125th st. and Madi class matter.

BROOKLYN-309 Washington st. PHILADELPHIA, PA. -Inquirer Office, $29 Chest

WASHINGTON-702 14th st

The World's Circulation for September

AVERAGE PER WEEK-DAY. 484,075. AVERAGE PER SUMDAY

324,904. Gain per Sunday over last year, 75,425.

Gain in number of advts, over last September, 7,711.

They elect down in Georgia to-day.

The Giants don't mean to have any slip over the Temple Cup.

Take your eyes off the horizon, M: Goff. Hoist your gaze higher up. China is well convinced of the sincerity of the Japanese cry, "On to Pekin!" Clubbers, as well as blackmailers, must be weeded from the police force. To the Glants-Come home with tha Temple Cup, and all will be forgiven.

"Get Together!" isn't one-half as good a shibboleth for the pending campaign as "Get Votes!"

Michael Riordan is discharged. But Is still important to press the inquiry as to who stabbed George Appo.

Use the dynamite of public indignation to blast the rock of party politics out of the path of municipal reform.

The Druggists' Convention at Delmor co's will probably before adjourning open "Fellows will not act." This is an ola act on the part of Fellows. He knows why he is District-Attorney.

several small bottles-of liver pills.

For the trotting-bred ponies which to "pony up." Where did he get it?

Consolidation, failing at the polls this Pall will fail for an indefinite time. Work for the Greater New York now, and vote for it Nov. 6 Streets of the new world's metropolis littered and rendered malodorous by uncared-for heaps of garbage! Oh, the needless shame of it!

"Machine-made policemen" isn't such a bad name for them, especially for se who dropped $300 in the slot before they were appointed.

It didn't need heaps of foul-smelling refuse, left to grow bigger and bigger in the public streets, to show that the present administration in this city is unclean.

The two great aerated fakes of the day seem to be the Fitzsimmons-Corbett long-distance talk and our own Rapid Transit Commissions'. Both seem to be nothing but wind.

Mr. Milholland having been to see Mr. Morton, it seems likely that Mr. Platt is once more to save a bit of cake out of what a less astute obsever might have taken for hopeless dough.

concerning detective business, Police cut him down off that tree. He may Commissioner Sheehan can give him a few, based on his knowledge of the big detectory at 300 Mulberry street.

Samples of penalties imposed by the Commissioners in the cases of convicted policemen: For being absent from rollcall and duty, one night, dismissal from to death, a fine of thirty days' pay.

I am a policeman. I could kill you single man on the force whose expressed understanding of his privileges reads like that, there is still an imperative de mand for a fresh vacancy in the ranks.

Don't be misled by the idea that rapid transit has got to come whether you vote for it or not. Failure to get their indorsed at the polls this Fall will leave the Commissioners powerless time and put off, for nobody knows how long, the possibility of "Fifteen minutes to Harlem." Vote the "for" ticket Nov. 6. .

Testimony before the Lexow Committee, yesierlay, showed that the police next session of the Leg-slature and see force still includes one man who has been convicted on fifteen out of sixteen been convicted on fifteen out of sixteen complaints before the Commissioners, four of them being charges of brutality: another man who, having been a policeman three years, has been on trial twendern and the same and the same ty-three times; a third, who has been en times on his defense, and others here unworthy wearers of the municipal blue. And Senator Bradley was ave two ferries than none.

When $10 will take a man across the cean on a fast liner, 10 cents for the to transportation companies. If worst mes to worst, and both Starin and the Rapid-Transit Company fall them et Staten Island people gather on the shore and hold up their little ten-cent pieces. There'll be boats enough there n an hour to float the universe.

The most satisfactory outcome of the affair that we can imagine would be for the city authorities to declare the sale off for non-fulfillment of conditions and sell the franchise over again with a five-cent fare provision. If a separate fare is to be charged on the railroad five ents is enough for the ferry.

A CONDITION PRECEDENT.

The German Emperor William is smoke his cigarettes in the cafes the peace of Europe. chantants or chat with the grisettes at the Jardin Mabille.

A NEW CLEARING-HOUSE.

The proceedings at the ceremony of aving the corner-stone of the new learing-House yesterday were of much interest. The address of Mr. G. G. Williams, the President of the Chemical Bank, and the President of the Asso lation, was a review of the operations of the Clearing-House since its establishment in 1853, and a merited eulogy of its patriotic course during the war and in the pante.

If the modesty of the President had Mr. Croker decided not to sell, he had not stood in the way, it would have been only just to have paid a tribute the valuable services rendered by Mr. Williams himself during our recent financial troubles.

The new building will occupy an imposing site, from 77 to 83 Cedar street. What a pity it is that a political be carried to the extreme of considering that learing-house cannot be established in principles are no 'count. this city, in which the debits and credits of organizations, machines and bosses lude to intelligent election.

might be set off against each other and The rich candidate is bound to be tried by then learn the true condition of parties roast him. and leaders and be able to judge for themselves whether Platt or Croker, Gilroy or Grace, Milholland or Barney Martin has the most-or, rather, the least-to recommend him to public confidence.

he had recovered his full strength he

She doesn't know how far he had got in his negotiations for shining wings and a wedge of celestial joy when she ever have another chance at golden slippers and glory. No wonder he was mad when he returned to earth. She leserved the lambasting she got.

and Duluth locomotive engineer, who When a husband hangs himself he has plans for his future. The wife that in erfere with his plans is simply standing in her own light. Wives should let rce; for clubbing a citizen nearly husbands alone in these matters, particularly when they are considerate enough to go outdoors to choke themselves off

As long as there is a THE CAT'S CLAUSE AND OTHER THINGS The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals is holding a meeting Alexany. The whole State is repre-

> Yesterday the Society resolved to petition the next Legislature for a laauthorize cities to tax cats as well as dogs, so as to give felines the dignity of ognition under the law, now confined to canifies. Such an amendment to the Dog Licensing law will be approriately named the cut's clause. The Commi tee on Legislation, consisting of John > Haines, of this city; Col. Rockwood, Buffulo, and Rev. Dr. Dennis, of Hochester, was requested to attend the how the cat jumps.

tion of the lives of a vast number of! birds of beautiful plumage. But how far is this humane move-ten times on his defense, and others who have been convicted time and again and lightly fined for offenses which would justly have earned dishonorable retirement. "I think the Commissioners are worse than he is for not breaking him," was Senator Bradley's comment, as the interesting details came out, regarding the career of one of these unworthy wearers of the municipal terms of the second and feet so attractive woman's dress in this humane movement in the direction of woman's dress in the thinks New York again to extend? How is it with the harmless seal, equirrel, sable, ermine, beaver, coon, and others of the weasel family, whose skins supply the furs in which woman looks so charming, and takes so much delight? How shout the innocent, playful kids sacrificed to make the career of one of these unworthy wearers of the municipal terms of the woman's dress to extend? How is it with the harmless seal, equirrel, sable, ermine, beaver, coon, and others of the weasel family, whose skins supply the furs in which woman looks so charming, and takes so much delight? How shout the innocent playful kids sacrificed to make the career of one of the weasel family, whose skins supply the furs in which woman looks so charming, and takes so much delight? How shout the innocent playful kids sacrificed to make the career of one of the weasel family, whose skins supply the furs in which have already and have a constant to extend? How is it with the harmless seal, equirrel, sable, ermine, beaver, of New York," said Miss Olga Nethersole Thinks New York is the care of the mount of the care of the same of the woman is the direction of woman's dress to extend? How is it with the harmless seal, equirrel, sable, ermine, beaver, of New York," said Miss Olga Nethersole Thinks New York is the care of the woman is the direction of woman's dress. woman's hands and feet so attractive in high boots and close fitting gloves? It is never quiet, even TO STATEN ISLAND FOR FIVE CENTS!

If every living thing slaughtered to contribute to the beauty and attraction of a well-dressed woman is to be living the for I am very fond the city as I can get, for I am very fond It is to be hoped that Staten Island "protected" by the Association, where Staten Island is much more apt to network a sentence to hard laber in State prison, will hear his doom pronounced with misgivings peculiarly his own. founded on the facts of a singular experience. He knows what hard labor is rip to Staten Island is a dazzling lure He has had the knowledge fired into him, as it were, at the mouth of a rourito furnace and the muzzle of a threatening evolver.

This burglar was a victim of circum tances and an inspiration. He brough the circumstances about by breaking into a manufactory at Metuchen through the scuttle-hole of the coal-cellar. The inspiration came to a watchman, who was taking care of the furnace as well as guarding the works. The watchman did more than see the and had a handful of big pistols to back up his venture. It was a neat play, and prompt one. The burglar could see that, even through his own veil of pretudice against such a proceeding. ouch and go sort of a young man. If though he had got his burglar without e had been so fortunate as to have a difficulty, the watchman found that been born on this side of the Atlantic he was not to keep him without one, he would have had considerable "Young The furnace needed care, and the bur-

e has to do. He must send back to however, that, like Farmer Dunn's lately France Metz and Strasburg as a pres-predicted cyclone over New York, the ent, express charges paid, before he disturbance will be blown out before it can expect to enjoy a drive in the Bois, arrives. Nobody's courage is yet quite lounge in the foyer of the Grand Opera, up to the point of causing a fracture in

It is good news, if true, that the police and the saloon-keepers are to part company. Even the liquor dealers themselves should feel relieved. Their peace has hitherto been purchased at a high price. It may now come to be an assured quantity under Excise laws so amended as to command respect and receive general support.

Don't stay away from the polls, whatever you There are local issues to slight which will be treason to your city.

SOME POLITICAL MAXIMS.

It is a mistake to put a candidate ning simply because he is well heeled. Fat-freing produces the oil to calm many The idea that it is votes that count should not

Intelligent selection is never amiss as a pre-a balance struck. The people would fire. His friends toast him and his enemies evergreen tree.

The man who is snowed under on election day feels that fate has cruelly cast him a drift.

It's the man who cuts ice whom the voters

The smallest cattle in the world are natives of

A HERO AMONG US.

Engineer Root, of Minnesota Forest Fire Fame, in the City. own to-day is James Root, the St. Paul should be taxed. The Tribune

ENGINEER JAMES ROOT.

STAGE NEWS AND GOSSIP. Olga Nethersole Thinks New York

can substitutes be found? Or, will our sole did not look as though she were people will not be unnecessarily alarmed over the ferry situation. If all bluffs were carried out, this would be a queer world to live in, and Staten Island people might have to swim or stay at home. But as long as bluffs are bluffs, there is no danger that Staten Island ferry people will throw away the profits of even a single day's business.

Staten Island is much more apt to d wanted me to come to this y with him some time ago, but I that time that I was not ripe for a. I went to Australia to praca repertoire. Why? Oh, because stem of long runs in London is turle in the way of acquiring exce in varied roles. I worked very an electric in the way of acquiring experience in varied roles. I worked very lard in Australia, and when I returned to London I found that I had profited by the tour. I am drendfully, dreadfully hervous about my first appearance here. Before sailing, I played engagements in Manchester and Birmingham, and in the latter city I made my maiden speech. They were enthusiastic, and so I felt I ought to say something." Miss Nethersole was accompanied by her brother, a very pleasant young man, and by Marcus Mayer, her manager.

Miss Annie Irish, who was to have burglar at his game. He raised him.

Miss Annie Irish, who was to have played the part of the stepdaughter in Miss Nethersole's production of "The Transgressor," will probably not appear a that cast. She is unfortunately too tately and imposing, and she would be better than her step-mommer—a state of things which would, of course, be quite too awful. Miss Irish's last appearance as a stepdaughter was with he Kendals in "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," been born on this side of the Atlantic he would have had considerable "Young America" in him.

His latest freak is the announcement of his intention to visit Paris during the next World's Fair. This declaration has been received with varied feelings both in France and Germany. By some it is regarded as evidence of a desire to live in neighborly relations with the French people. Others attribute it to self-conceit and a wish to let the French people see the grandson of his grandfather, while others again believe it is and a mounces that he will never be permitted to enter Paris until he shall have returned Metz and Strasburg to France. Exactly how William is to be prevented from going to Paris as a private individual is not made clear. But La Patrie, looking upon the young gentleman as a receiver of stolen goods, would probably cause his arrest on that charge.

So now Emperor William knows what the simple of the simple

The Kendals have apparently made a big hit in Chicago with "Lady Ciancarty," and one Chicago critic is loud in its praises of the way in which Mrs. Kendal practises the art of self-suppreasion. It's a pity that Chicago likes "Lady Clancarty" so much, but still the unexpected happens at times, and New York may agree with the Western verdict. A gentleman named John Griffith takes

A gentleman named John Griffith takes the trouble to send on a heap of beautiful things that Chicago and Cincinnati have said about him as Mephisto in "Faust." It appears that he "keeps his performance on a judiciously determined plane of sobriety" (which is very nice to know), that he is tall, graceful and intelligent, and that he owns a resonant voice. He is, moreover, sinuous, ductile and magnetic, with a dash of the subtle and sardonic. On the principle that it is good to know everything, these facts are worth recording.

Harry B. Smith, Reginald De Koven's Ilbrettist, has published, for private culation, two dainty little books, w it is to be hoped that he will give to public. One is a volume of "Lyrics Sonnets," containing many quaint ceits, and pleasing rhythms. The is a comedy called "Will Snakespeare," in which the immortal bard appears as "a 'prentice in Stratford, a player and poet in London." It is distinctly worth reading, and there is no reason why it should not reach the footlights. It entitles Mr. Smith to a position in the ranks of the Shakespearlanites.

Messrs. Richards and Canfield, Intelligent selection is never amiss as a prelude to intelligent election.

The rich candidate is bound to be tried by fire. His friends toast him and his enemies roast him.

Full many a political sapling finds that the stump is all there is of what he took for an Messrs. Richards and Canneid, we were formerly memery and comedy companies, started out with play of their own a short time ag returned to the metropolis. There ar remore a financial succession of the closing of the closing of the closing of the comedy memory and canneid and canneid and comedy and canneid and canne

Minnie Palmer (alas! these foolish tears!) is never coming back to America. She says so herself She loves Eng-land since an English Judge refused to try the Palmer-Rogers divorce suit. fidence.

THE WIFE WON BY A NECK.

A West Virginia farmer quarrelled with his wife and went out doors and hung himself to a tree. His wife cut him down and resuscitated him. When he had recovered his full strength he had recovered his full strength he

It's the man who cuts ice whom the voters can discovered him and since an English Judge refused to try the Falmer-Rogers divorce suit. Miss Palmer has told an interviewer that she will never forgive her Johnny. "Never" she declared. "I abominate him. He has slandered me outrageously, and no good wife can forgive that. Although I carned the money in Sweethern to the machines now used in their manufacture turn out 200 a minute each heart. I had to beg of him whenever I winted a couple of pounds."

he had recovered his full strength he doubled the rope and whaled her with the Samon Islands. Their average weight is it, so that she went several laps closer than he did to that bourne whence no traveller returns.

A meddling wife does an awful lot of harm at times. The West Virginia woman may have snatched a golden woman may have snatched a golden burg than in any other city of the United States.

The smallest cattle in the world are natives of the Samon Islands. Their average weight is the Samon Islands. The world average weight is the Samon Islands. The world average weight is the Samon Islands. The samon Islands Their average weight is the Samon Islands. The samon Islands Their average weight is the Samon Islands. The world average weight is the Samon Isla

BY NEW YORK EDITORS.

The revenue system of the police shows mo intricary and elaboration than that of the Casear The most interesting visitor in this when the degree went forth that all the world

> If the Lexue Committee are germ proof they may emerge from their session in the material and abardoned old Criminal Court-House without having contracted any mortal ailment. Malarta typhoid and heaven only knows what else threater them in that disunal rockery.—The Herald. There should be no politics in this crusade > and it must be a united people to win.-The Fiving Jib is morely an irregular skirmishi for a line advancing in his year * * * Some day a successor, going singly, will also pace in 1 55%, and later a trotter will do the same.-Th gainst debauchers and crime in the municipal overnment. It is the people against corruption

There is a hazy notion about that a police captatu is "punished" for taking bribes when he is dismissed from the force. But that is all consense. A man who has grown rich by presentituting an office is not punished merely by removal from the office. He is punished only when he is undergoing the legal penalties for his crime. - The Times.

Certain male critics have recently been calling attention to the extreme interest new betraying in the Pail fashtons and question ing whether this solicitude is not a sign of th greater. Every right thinking man delights in feminine exhibitions of good taste in drass. It is thinking man delights in a distinctive evidence of intrinsic woman

ALL ENGLISH, YOU KNOW.

Some Fun from London's Latest Comte Weeklies.

"All right, Georgy Arris, now I'll tell your mother o' you!" "You will?" "Yus, I will!" "Take you all yer time-she's stone deaf!"

'I know a man in Camden Town, Who puts his clothes on upside down

Highwayman Bold (overtaking mysterious stranger on the haunted moor)—Your money or your life!
Stranger—Ga 'long, stoopid! Weil, pommy word, you amuse me, you do. I'm the ghost!

Bowler-I hear you've an addition your family.
Topper-Yes; how did you know?
Bowler-Guessed, my boy. You so happy over it.

"Well, Mr. Snapshot, have you had much sport to-day?" "Yes, fairly good, Miss Machaste; I have shot three partridges, two dogs and one keeper."

A Candled Ap-peel.

"I wish you would give me a for this lovely cake, Mrs. He "Certainly, Mr. Bounder; but do think a receipt for your last qu board would do instead?"

A False Start.

Old Party (who has come upon a really gorgeous fight)—Oh, dear! Oh, dear! You mustn't do this; (impressively) dyou know what sort of little boys go to heaven? Juvenile Reprobate—Dead 'uns! (Moral lecture postponed.)

OUR FIRST DRY SUNDAY.

Here are a few experiences that were gleaned ettische who found the side doors of saloons botted and burred last Sanday. Any person who sees any-thing interesting in this regard nest Sanday will But their communications welcome in The Event

A Jingling Protest.

Oh dear, oh dear, it's very queer I always took a friendly glass On my way home from early mass; And then about each hour or so My Tommy for a pint would go. And so the moistened Sunday sped Until 'twas time to go to bed; And on my couch I'd nicely sneeze None the worse for my Sunday booze, Oh. Mr. Hyrnes, if you were clear Of every sin but Sunday beer You could be wearing angel's wings And playing harps with golden strings; But you're no angul in diaguise; Just wait till Lexow open his eyes-There's worse than drinking Sunday bee MR. REILLY

Prisoner in an Oozy Place. To the Editor:

It may be the law and the Gospel, this won erful virtue of Mr. Byrnes and his police, but am a wife who got a good scare out of the first 'dry Sunday," as you call it, and I just want to say that I don't believe in it. My husband i a hard-working, honest man, and he never takes any more than is good for him. Now, last Sunlay, after church, he went for a can of beer, as usual, but he never came back. I waited and waited for the beer, but neither the beer nor he man came. After a while I got scared that taybe he had taken a drop too much and was ncked up. So I went around to the exhorn t squire. But the door was locked-the first tim hese seven years—and notedy answered knock. I went up to the policeman on the eat and asked him had he seen my man. "No," says he, "but I think he's not far about." Then said something with an ugly look about lawmy man was locked up, sure. I went to the tation-house, but he wasn't there. Then, scared half out of my with, I took the baby on my arm "Have done, ye hussy! Isn't it enough o be cooped up in a saloon for six hours with se doors locked and the windows down and a policeman ready to arrest the boss any minute he door opens And I might have stayed till 'clock hadn't been decent enough to lown the block." MARTIN'S WIFE.

The Kegs and the Tomato-Can Man. to the Editor:

This is the result of "dry Sundays." The genlemanly bum in a chinchilla overcoat and blue overalls who has had the tomato-can privilege at the saloon on our corner these five years, and who has enjoyed lovely siestas on my front stoop and reveiled in the beer-drainings since my eldest son was a baby, was on hand as usual last Sunday. He came with his familiar devil-maycare swagger, a beatific amile wreathing his rubi-cund face, and his strong right arm thrust deep down in the ample pocket of the upper of two garments which, with broken brogans and a derby hat, vintage of 1879, are full dress with Artist him. I couldn't see it, but I knew that his brawny hand, so unused to toll, was fondly fondling his tomato can, and his joyous heart was cing in ecstanies of anticipation. Like a ome to his dry-goods box up a back alley at 2 in the morning, full to the brim with beer got from the kegs the night before. With gentle haste he approached the areaway rack where the The netting should be an inch and a half mould to form. saloon-keeper plies his "empties," his eagle eye scanning the streets in either direction for sign of that enemy of luxury, the "copper Defily he turned up the first ker, but none of the fragrant juice ran into the can. The turn of second was not more productive. A third and the mber drops did not come. The others were a a bewildered way. The saloon was silent as the grave, with curtains drawn aside. He peered in. It was as empty as his can. Then with on low wail of bitter woe he sank down upon the savement. Those who found him said his dead ce wore a look of terrible anguish. It was a

DRY SUNDAY. "Tony's" Closed Up, Too.

to the Editor: Tony's to get that which will unkink your hair, some old fellow who is against the world in gen-only to find that Tony's doors are boiled and eral, but who found it easier to avenge himself barred, that the vigilant policeman who has by attacking the fair sex of New York. Let me an eagle eye, and Tony himself, who is sitting buy himself a pair of eye-glasses and then visit on the bootblack's stand in front, says he is our principal promonades. If then he does not waiting for his wife to get ready for church— change his ideas about beauty, he must be hope. World" for several weeks. The question refs and tells you that Herman's and Mike's and all less. the rest are closed up, too-then, and not till then, are you ready to let your epitaph be written. Then do you rudely awaken to the realization that it is a dry Sunday. EXPERIENCE.

Brooklyn's Boose Is Jeoparded.

To the Editor cause Supt. Byrnes has cut off their beer they me whooping and hallocing over to Brooklyn quiet Sunday nips so notorious that the one man's loss is another's gain. Until that is to know better, have the temerity to argue the changed, free trade means commercial anarchy. New York girls are the prettiest in the realist police will be getting on to un. SMITH STREET, Brooklyn.

The Patrolman's Live-Wire Thirst.

To the Editor: What is the public kicking so much about? ow regard us as poison and refuse us any of policeman doesn't know how to be thirsty COPPER Q.

Not So Dry on Third Avenue.

To the Editor: Monday's papers were full of returns of a 'Dry To the Editor: Sonday a papers were to Third avenue from Sonday. Where? Not on Third avenue from We are two young girls, considered good look. Porty-second street to Third street, for as I passed at S. A. M. and 12 noon, also at 2, 4, 6 and housework to fancywork, and have a good many cars be stopped from doing business on this day of the sone of your kind readbossework to fancywork, and have a good many of the work all in fall blast, particularly — s, at — street and Third avenue. Meet admirers, but would like some of your kind readmirers, but would like so or a policeman to arrest a man who has given yet never ask us to go to places of amusement, or sim a drink any day or night during the week even ask us to go for a walk. breaking the law on Sunday. A WOMAN.

A Comedian's View of It.

P. B. O.

Pantata Business Suspended.

of violating the law the police can't violate it that's all. JOHN JOHN GETZ. punishment. Individually, he was a cipher. [xxi., 4.)

The New Prince Albert Cont.

square. This netting, which is effectly Efforts have been made to adapt the in a variety of ways, is done to order by Prince Albert cont. The success of the the fish women, or rather by the fisher tallors is expressed in the cut. On paper wives of the Atlantic coast. Half a ce it is pleasing enough, but it is a design tury ago our grandmothers netted cotto that will not bear amateur handling and all garnitures and darned tage both for trimmings to bed-hangings and window draperies, and for the old-fash-

Ladies' tailors who charge ever so much have all they can do to locate the hip ing to get thin hominy may be used u cloths are used for this style.

Bake Shops of Paris.

half out of my wits, I took the baby on my arm and ran to Bellevae. But nobody had seen him there. I had asked among all his acquaintances and I was itred out. It was after dark, so I went home—and there was Martint Of course, as I am only a woman, I started in to give him a going-over when he stopped me. "Have done!" of the public. One can order a roast and the brain vigor, and it is not fleshfrom these places, or the meat and poultry may be prepared and sent there to be roasted. The cooking is done before an immense wood-fire in an open fire toroing if the man who came on the post at 6 place. The meat is put on a spit which is turned constantly by clockwork Sometimes there will be a dozen chickens on one of these spits. The roasting generally begins about 6 o'clock and continues until 8. At these shops one teeth and injures the gums, as globe can always purchase cold roast poultry. Buttermilk and Beauty.

> The beauties of Ireland and Scotland have no use for cold cream or almond meal while butter-making is in progress As a drink, the thick milk is a medicine and refreshment.

Buttermilk is an old-time cosmetic kidneys and liver and is recommended Artistic Draperies. For portieres a trimming as yet un hackneyed is a fish-net band, a foot wide or more, plainly sewed to the plain maFat Girls and Hominy.

line where it belongs; if it is just right the garment is admirable. Only smooth breakfast cereals. Boiled fine homis, with butter, crushed fruit, sauces, jelly or milk, is fine, provided it is cooked right; cold hominy, formed in diamon Winter excepted, a French woman squares or balls, and fried in bollh eye-brows down to a mere line. It is not a fact that the blackening destroys the trotters say in their books of travel The paste is simply a black dentifr containing gelatine.

Rice Jelly. Boll a quarter of a pound of rice b

LETTERS. 17hts column is open to everybody seho has complaint to make, a grievance to ventilate, information to give, a subject of general interest to discuss or a public service to acknowledge, and who ca put the idea into less than 100 words. Long letters cannot be printed. 1 Our Girls Are Good-Looking.

To the Editor: "Charile" must have lived all his life in the wilds of Africa, for if he were the least bit civilized he certainly would not have gumption enough o insinuate that New York girls are not beauties. new shade of brown, your nerves all unstrung, and your wife calling to you to "Hurry up, or be struck dumb by the good looks and gracious believe in immortality meet death with as mad we'll be late for church," and you rush out to movements of our girls. Maybe "Charlie" is or more reluctance than those who prefer sever bothered to know anything about the do-ings on his post is watching Tony's place with takes, he will never regret. It is, that he will

DR. OLDFLIRT.

To the Editor:

"R. U. Ontoit" is evidently not onto it. An that Chicago's girls are the ne plus ultraeconomic system that enables a workingman to American femininity. The adherents of the spec-become immensely rich has many excellent tacked divinities, who flutter about the city noted economic system that enables a workingman points. When an employer has millions, united for culture and the julcy bean, contend the labor can get more out of him than if he has Boston girls are the only terrestrial scraph nothing. I see nothing to gain by making the The little Philadelphia maiden, sweet, dem employers of England and Germany rich, instead and prim, has her champion, as have also the and call public attention to the fact that the flow of Sunday beer over here has not been in 29), and see with what delirious joy England recities where "The Evening World" is read. But terrupted. We have a Sunday law, too, but the ceives Mr. Wilson, and tells him he has helped what is most astonishing to a reflective mind is authorities have too much sense to bother about to start her furnaces and factories. Under the that New Yorkers, who live in such close pros-Thirsty New Yorkers, though, may make world's economic system, business is a warfare; imity to Brooklyn, and who, consequently, our

> G. G. Police Amenities.

To the Editor: Seeing "Bill of Billsville's" account in Fri-What is the public kicking so much about?

This dry Sunday nuisance is hurting us policed and men more than it is them. They get cut off from their boots only one day in the week, while we poor sons of sea cooks are now cut off every day.

Seeing "Hill of Billiaville's account in Priday's "Evening World," I should like to corroborate his statement. As I was waiting for a such as a secondary paralles. The writer will accept the surface car last Saturday midnight on lower poor sons of sea cooks are now cut off every day. The salmon-keepers that used to be our friends costed by a vagrant, who abused and insulted now regard us as poison and refuse us any of both of us, and I, for relief, sought an officer. new regard us as poison and refuse us any of theirs. Our suffering begins Monday at 12.01 I foud two in "conversatione" two blocks away.

A. M. and continues until 12.01 A. M. the next Monday. There are some people who think a policeman doesn't know how to be thirsty.

To the Editor:

I have read w had as anited the other gentleman. It merely above a lack of fidelity of the police.

It merely of raids by the New York Police Department for enforcing the Excise law, and berewith would enforcing the Excise law, and berewith would EDWARD SCHAEFER.

Their Admirers Are Slow.

EDITH AND ETHEL

ity, at which time they came in contact with the much higher civilization of the Persians, many of whose ideas the borrowed. To the Hebreus the only distinction after death appears to have In answer to S. O. Blunden, who asks for the only distinction after death appears to have Why should the police permit the aslooms to remain open on Sunday? The saloon-keepers don't "see" the "old man" any more; and as went to heaven were translated bodily, like shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor exploring at they don't pay the police for the privilege of violating the law the police can't let them heaven or hell because he believed in temporal the former things are passed away." [Revelating the law the police can't let them heaven or hell because he believed in temporal the former things are passed away." [Revelating the law the former things are passed away." [Revelating the law the police can't let them heaven or hell because he believed in temporal the former things are passed away." [Revelating the law the police can't let them heaven or hell because he believed in temporal the former things are passed away." [Revelating the law the police can't let them heaven or hell because he believed in temporal the former things are passed away." [Revelating the law the police can't let them heaven or hell because he believed in temporal to have the law the police can't let them heaven or hell because he believed in temporal to have the law them heaven or hell because he let them heaven or hell because he believed in temporal to have the law the police can't let them heaven or hell because he believed in temporal to heave the law them heaven or hell because he believed in temporal to heave the law them heaven or hell because he believed in temporal to heave the law them heaven or hell because he believed in temporal to heave the law them heaven or hell because he believed in temporal to heave the law them heaven or hell because he heaven o loned "tidles" that have been replaced by "throws" and "head-rests." These were made in the same manner as the fasnets on our Atlantic coasts.

The Way to Walk.

Try and be quiet when you walk, says physical culturalist; don't wobbl ion't beat the air, don't shuffle the shoul ders; don't fancy yourself a whirligh Keep to a narrow base when walking, and not by any "breadth" or sidewise move ment interfere with other pedestrians How tired all those people look! Their faces are haggard and drawn; their backs ache; their nerves are unstrung, and their brains are muddled. All this is the result of mal-polse and waste of nerveforce through misdirected locomotive as tion. Walking on scientific principles with unimpeded hip and leg action, and otherwise a conservation of energy, is a other wise to the walker and the on-

In the dietary for girls who are Wifely Sacrifices of Beauty. When a Japanese girl marries, illa 'Little Totty Coughdrops," she doesn't merely sing "I will be true." She paint her beautiful teeth black and shaves her

Rich Wine Sauce. One cupful of butter, two of powde sugar, half a cupful of wine. Beat the butter to a cream. Add the sugar grad-ually, and when very light add the wine, which has been made hot, a little at a time. Place the bowl in a basis of hot water and ctir for two minute The sauce should be smooth and foamy, terial, whatever that may be, six inches one quart of water for an hour, strain from the bottom. It may be finished off the water, sweeten to taste and add with small tassels tied into the bottom. the juice of a small lemon. Pour into a

His god blessed or punished the family or nation even unto the third generation. Herodotus states The Egyptians were the first who asset etrine that the soul of man is immorts The Hebrew saw famine and pestilence strew land with corpses; the wicked rich and ous; the just suffering the torments of disease and poverty, and the idea of another life at retribution was eagerely welcomed among the common people, and almost displaced the belief in the Restoration. Lazarus, brooding over errongs and dismal lot in life, imagines the exchange situations. It is hard to die with ever having really lived. But, instead opinion, if immortality were a proven fact, and its full significance fairly presented, it is

Brooklyn Beauties, Forever! To the Editor: It affords the writer a pardonable gratifical settle beyond further dispute a question th Uncle Sam can boast of. Such of "The Even World" readers who have the mistortune to I As Ingersoll would say, it is monstrously a believable. It is common knowledge the wor captivating, bewitching, fascinating and dazslin of all the beauties that help to make old eart over that the fair ones of the City of Church are the handsomest, wittlest, most attractive

Brooklyn girl over all her com

We Don't Know. I have read with a deal of interest the series enforcing the Excise law, and berewith would like to ask the following question, first stating that I believe there is a law in this State which says that no store whatsoever should be open

The Origin of Evil.

Immortality in the Old Testament. To the Editor: Dr. Justus J. Spreng says, "God is not the To the Editor:

One of the best comments on the Sunday law, I leard Press Editidge, the Ethiopian comedian make. He said the police watched the aide doors so closely that the milcon-keepers had to doors so closely that the milcon-keepers had to do business through the front doors. Mr. Editidge was not very far out of the way. There's many a true word spoken in jest. Hat hat hat:

P. B. C.

Iminortality in the Old Testalient.

To the Editor:

To the Editor:

The ancient Hebrews like all other uncivilized the subject, the Bible, says: "I corm the light and create darkness; I make peace and create darkness; I make peace and create darkness; I make peace and create who saw his dead friend or few alive in his dreams would suggest the theory of a spirit or soul. But the immortality of the soul was a much later idea. The ancient Hebrews did not have the idea until ifter the Babylonian captivity.

P. B. C.

Another "Immortality" Verse.